

Even though school is already in session, there are some students who still need some supplies. The Adrian Meijer recently donated backpacks to 40 students at Michener Elementary School. The students were able to pick their own backpacks at an event held in the school's library.

Parent Community Coordinator Sharon Murdock said the students were very appreciative of the gift.

"Meijer does so much for our school," Murdock said.

To learn more about the event, click here.

<https://meijercommunity.com/2014-11-05-Adrian-Meijer-Helps-Out-Elementary-Students>