

Detroit Red Wings hockey players Luke Glendening and Danny DeKeyser will be visiting six Meijer stores throughout Metro Detroit over the next few months. During their visits, fans will have the opportunity to meet the players and get their autographs.

Glendening makes his first appearance on January 19 at the 8 Mile Detroit store, and DeKeyser will visit the Allen Park store on February 3. All events take place from 5-7 p.m., with player signings from 6-7 p.m.

Meijer supports many local sports teams and is proud to partner with the Detroit Red Wings on an event that focuses on area-residents and team fans. For more information about upcoming events, click here.
