

Meijer State Games of Michigan Winter Games Kick Off This Weekend

Although the main festival doesn't take place until late February, some Meijer State Games of Michigan Winter Games sports competitions begin this weekend.

Athletes from across the state will compete in the freestyle and Nordic cross country ski events at Forbush Corner and Hanson Hills respectively, as well as weightlifting at CrossFit Grand Rapids. The majority of the Winter Games competitions will take place Feb. 20-22.

"The Meijer State Games of Michigan evokes such a strong sense of community and state pride in its participants, as well as the thousands of spectators who attend," Meijer Co-Chairman Doug Meijer said. "Meijer is pleased to support this event because it exemplifies our commitment to supporting the communities where our customers and team members work and live."
