

Happy Birthday, Louisville Zoo Halloween Party

The Louisville Zoo's annual Halloween party is turning 35 this year, and will once again provide area families with a cheery, not eerie celebration.

Children can dress up in their favorite costumes, explore the zoo and meet costumed characters in fun, larger-than-life storybook scenes throughout the zoo. Children, ages 11 and younger, can go trick-or-treating.

The World's Largest Halloween Party, which is presented by Meijer, will be held Oct. 1-2, 6-9, 13-16, 20-23 and 27-30 and will host Mumpkin the Giant Talking Pumpkin, a Superhero City, sea creatures and a pirate's cove.
