

Meijer Donates Up to $500,000 to Local Children's Charities Across the Midwest

For the third consecutive year, the Buy a Toy, Share the Joy giving event will spread holiday cheer to children in need. Meijer will donate a portion of customer purchases made in the toy department, up to $500,000, to children's gift-giving programs throughout the Midwest.

Purchases made on hundreds of toys – including favorite national brands like Fisher-Price, Barbie, Lego and Nerf, and this season's Top 10 toys – will count toward increasing the donation, up to $500,000, to children's gift-giving programs within the retailer's six-state footprint of Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky and Wisconsin. Meijer will select the programs to ensure that the donations remain in the communities Meijer serves.
