

For the 35th year, Chicago's Brookfield Zoo will host their annual lights festival, Holiday Magic. The 12 evenings offer guests a variety of activities and attractions including the new "Polar Lights" display that shines over the zoo's West Mall, and the classic 41-foot-tall Talking Tree. Santa and Mrs. Clause will also be on site for photos.

Other events families can experience at Holiday Magic include:

- Singing to animals
- Live entertainment
- Professional ice carving demonstrations
- More than 500 lit community decorated trees
- Cookie decorating
- Carolers and choirs
- Photos with animals
- Theater performances in the Holly Jolly Theater
- Access to select exhibits
