

Meijer LPGA Classic Welcomes Young Golf Fans to Junior Clinic

On Tuesday, the Meijer LPGA Classic for *Simply Give hosted a junior clinic at Egypt Valley Country Club. More than 150 kids attended the free clinic, sponsored by P&G, which featured fun activities, games and group instruction from both LPGA and local golf professionals. For two hours, the children were able to practice their driving, putting and more.

The tournament also welcomes young golf fans to the enhanced Kid's Center at Blythefield Country Club - Discovery Land - which features Nickelodeon, Hasbro, Universal Studios and STEM-related activities and characters.

"The Meijer LPGA Classic will truly be a destination for kids and families with the addition of Discovery Land this year," said Cathy Cooper, Executive Director of the Meijer LPGA Classic. "We will have so many fun activities, as well as character appearances from Paw Patrol and SpongeBob."
