

Indianapolis Teachers Feel the Love

Meijer recently teamed up with the Indianapolis Colts and Coca-Cola Consolidated to surprise hundreds of teachers with free school supplies to get their school year off to a great start.

The surprise was part of Coca-Cola Consolidated's "BIG HEARTS. mini cans." program and involved giving roughly 200 teachers a bag of school supplies, free food and beverages before they attended a Colts pre-season game at Lucas Oil Stadium.

Good luck on the new school year.
