

Meijer LPGA Classic for Simply Give Continues Emphasis on Diversity and Inclusion

Tournament collaborates with more than a dozen local diverse-owned restaurants to bolster community event

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 31, 2023 /PRNewswire/ -- The Meijer LPGA Classic for Simply Give will continue to highlight the retailer's ongoing commitment to diversity and inclusion by once again featuring more than a dozen local diverse-owned restaurants at J. Brewer's, a premium hospitality experience on the fourth fairway of Blythefield Country Club.

Throughout tournament week – June 15-18 – Meijer will collaborate with local, and diverse-owned food and beverage restaurants and vendors to supply new and unique experiences for spectators.

"Our purpose at Meijer is to enrich lives in the communities we serve, and we believe supplier diversity plays a vital role," said Carla Hendon, Director of Supplier Diversity and Indirect Procurement. "By partnering with diverse restaurants at the Meijer LPGA Classic, we aren't just supporting their founders, we're intentionally helping to grow their communities with the thousands of spectators who attend the tournament."

In fact, the 2022 Meijer LPGA Classic set attendance records with more than 60,000 spectators.

Food and beverage offerings will include Tuscan Mediterranean salad, jerk chicken puffs and specialty items from Soldadera Coffee, Rani Indian Catering and Pochi's Sweet Designs. Restaurants new to J. Brewer's in 2023 include Irie Kitchen, Monsoon and Tacos El Cunado. For a full list of restaurant partners, click here.

"We're excited to welcome back so many diverse-owned restaurants to this year's tournament – and invite new ones – to partner with us to share their wonderful menus and expand upon the traditional offerings typically seen at golf events," said Cathy Cooper, Executive Director of the Meijer LPGA Classic. "Last year's attendees loved the new offerings, but this year's menu lineup will be our best yet."

In addition to the diverse food and beverage offerings, the Meijer LPGA Classic is excited to welcome the John Shippen National Women's Golf Invitational champion as a sponsor exemption into the 2023 tournament. That event will also be held at Blythefield Country Club on June 6-7 and is named for the first Black professional golfer in the United States.

The 2023 Meijer LPGA Classic will host a full field of 144 of the best female golfers for 72 holes of stroke play over four days of competition. Proceeds from the tournament – and each of the week's festivities – will once again benefit the Meijer Simply Give program that feeds families by restocking the shelves of food pantries across the Midwest. The 2022 tournament raised $1.25 million for local food pantries through Simply Give. In total, the eight tournaments combined have generated more than $8.65 million for the Meijer Simply Give hunger relief program. Additionally, in 2022, Meijer also donated $25,000 to a hunger relief organization of tournament Champion Jennifer Kupcho's choice. She selected Grand Rapids-based Kids' Food Basket as a thank you to her host family, who had ties to the organization.
